

Conduct of the examinations

Language acquisition listening comprehension examinations

You will have five minutes' reading time to review the content of the examination. No writing is allowed during this time.

Once the five minutes' reading time has concluded, you may write answers and notes at any time during the examination.

You may write notes in the spaces provided. Notes will not be marked.

Pauses are built in between each audio text.

You are only permitted to use wireless headphones if they are supplied by your school.

If the audio is played on an individual device, you are not permitted to interact with the device once the examination has started.

Once three beeps are heard, the examination has concluded, and you must stop writing.

Further to the information provided here, please ensure that you read the full instructions on the front page of each examination. If you would like any further information, please speak to your coordinator.

The conduct of examinations rules apply to these examinations and must be observed at all times.
